Sharon Simpson
U.S. Customs and Immigration Services

Sharon Simpson has served as an Immigration Services Officer at the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Texas Service Center, since June 2008 and began her federal career at the United States Postal Service in Dallas in April 2006. She is the President and Founder of the women's faith-based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization "I Am A Treasure Ministries, Inc." and conference host of The Unveiling Women's Movement®, both established in 2013. Sharon is the leader of "The Treasure Box of Love Outreach," an outreach program that personally delivers food, clothing and blankets to families and provides essential resources and services to families throughout the communities of Texas when they are faced with life's challenges. Sharon is a mentor, consultant, and a passionate advocator to encourage and help women live a life of wholeness, courage, strength, and resilience of transformation from the inside out.
